Our heads are in the Clouds…

Multiple – choice quiz

1. What are the three main types of clouds?
    a. Cumulus, Cirrocumulus, and Stratus
    b. Cirrus, Cumulus, and Stratus
    c. Nimbostratus, Cumulus, and Serene

2. In what part of the Earth's atmosphere does weather take place?
    a. Troposphere
    b. Stratosphere
    c. Mesosphere

3. Fair weather is usually indicated by this kind of cloud.
    a. Cumulus
    b. Nimbostratus
    c. Cumulonimbus

4. What is a low stratus cloud called?
    a. Stratusnimbo
    b. Fog
    c. Cirro

5. What kind of cloud produces tornadoes?
    a. Cumulonimbus
    b. Nimbostratus
    c. Cirrus

6. What clouds form in low layers over the Earth?
    a. Cumulus
    b. Stratus
    c. Cirrus

7. What is a cloud made of?
    a. Water clinging to dust particles
    b. Rain and moisture
    c. Dew

8. Clouds form when water vapor in the air…
    a. Evaporates
    b. Condenses
    c. Precipitates

9. Cirrus clouds look like…
    a. Puffy white cotton balls
    b. Commas or wisps of hair high in the sky
    c. Low, gray layers

10. When you see nimbus in a cloud name, you know the cloud is…
    a. A fair weather cloud
    b. A rain cloud
    c. Fog